

PRICING: CDCU

Credit Union Members

Members of select Community Development Credit Unions (CDCUs) qualify for a $60 Citi Bike Annual Membership.

Citi Bike aims to offer New Yorkers an affordable, accessible and fun new transportation option. Members of participating CDCUs qualify for a $60 (+ tax) Citi Bike Annual Membership. You'll get an unlimited number of rides for a whole year, and access to thousands of bikes across Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens and Jersey City.

The first 45 minutes of each ride are included in your membership price. If you keep a bike out for longer than 45 minutes at a time, you'll be charged usage fees. All members must keep an active credit or debit card on file in case usage fees are incurred. To avoid usage fees, keep your rides to 45 minutes or less. A ride begins when a bike is unlocked and ends when the bike is securely returned to any Citi Bike station. For more details on pricing, see the Annual Membership page.

A Citi Bike membership is not transferable, and a member key must not be shared.

Here's what you need to sign up:

Members of the CDCUs listed to the right will receive a Citi Bike gift certificate code directly from the credit union after starting a credit or checking account. Discount codes are unique to each credit union member, are not transferable, and are valid for one use per 365 days.

Click the link below to sign up, and on the sign-up page, select "Redeem a gift certificate" and enter the number.

More information on billing:

When you sign up for Citi Bike, your credit or debit card will be billed $60 (+ tax) immediately upon submitting your membership application through the sign-up page. If you incur any usage fees, they will be billed to your credit or debit card of the 3rd day of each month. All members must keep an active credit or debit card on file in case usage fees are incurred.

You can view your billing statements anytime – just log into your account and view Billing Statements.
