* New member must be 18 years or older, and must successfully open an account at Zeal Credit Union with a $5 minimum deposit. To become a member, a $2 one-time membership fee to our sponsor, Cooperative Services, Inc. is required. All new members must provide picture identification and are subject to account verification. For each successfully established new account, the sharing member will receive a $25 deposit into their account. Deposits will be made upon verification that all member accounts are in good standing. This offer may not be combined with any other member referral offer.

[†] Promotion is for members ages 18 and older who successfully open a free Checking Account with $250 in Direct Deposits, a Debit Card, and e-Statements within the first six months of their Zeal Credit Union membership. Qualifying members will receive a $100 deposit into their account upon verification that the above conditions have been met. Federal, state and local taxes, if any, and any other costs or expenses related to acceptance and use of the prize not specified, are the sole responsibility of the member. This offer may not be combined with any other offers.
