Membership in Interior FCU offers a variety of benefits. Interior Federal Credit Union is a financial cooperative, owned and operated by its members. As a not-for-profit financial institution, the money the credit union makes is used to benefit our members (not to serve the needs of stockholders).

- Save money with free accounts, better rates, and fewer fees.
- Save time with convenient online and mobile access plus nationwide service through shared branches.
- Learn skills that will benefit you throughout your life by taking advantage of our free financial education resources.
- Experience ownership, because as a member you're a shareholder with the right to participate in elections for the Board of Directors by voting or running for a position. You can also volunteer as a committee member who advises the Board about the needs of our members.
