YOUTH ACCOUNTS

Teach Your Children to Save

Good savings habits begin at an early age. Help your children learn the importance of saving money for their short- and long-term goals with one of our Youth Club Accounts (https://www.nwfcu.org/sites/nwfcu.org/files/2017-01/MemAppMinor.pdf). They'll be rewarded with:

o Higher dividends on the first $1,500 saved
o Gift and membership kit at account opening o Deposit rewards, including $25 bonus* to First Rewards account holders when $500 is saved

o Youth Membership Application (https://nwfcu.org/sites/nwfcu.org/files/2017-04/NW%20Youth%20Application%20050117.pdf)
o Statement of ID for Minor (/sites/nwfcu.org/files/2016-12/IDStatementforMinors.pdf)

Save for your child's future

You can set money aside for your child's future with a Custodial Account (opened under the child's name and Social Security Number). As the custodian you maintain control over the account and can add or withdraw funds as needed. When the child reaches adulthood, the account is turned over to them.

*You will receive $25 as a bonus when your First Rewards savings account balance reaches $500. The $25 bonus will be credited to the savings account by close of business on the first day the balance reaches $500. Offer limited to one bonus per member. The bonus will be reported on the member's year-end 1099-INT statement.
