QUESTIONS?

What exactly is Beam? Is Beam a bank account or an investment account? Is my money FDIC-insured? +

Most banks I've heard of pay a measly 0.01% interest. Even the online banks (Ally etc.) pay only 1%. How is Beam able to offer such a high interest? +

Do I need to switch banks to use Beam? That would be painful. +

Another account? I already have multiple bank accounts and want to keep things simple. How simple is it to use Beam? +

I like my bank. Why should I care about making a 2 - 4% interest as opposed to 0.01%? +

Why would Beam have a waiting list? How long do I have to wait once I claim a spot? +

What does 2 - 4% APY mean? +

Where is my cash invested? Is my money safe? And how secure is my information? +

Why should I use Beam if I can trade stocks and funds? Aren't those better options? +

How much does it cost? Any upfront costs or hidden fees? How do you make money? +

How easy is it to access my money if I need to withdraw? Any minimum balance? +
