*Offer expires 10.31.18. Promotional Period Bonus is 08.01.18 to 10.31.18. Enrollment is the month the promotional code was added to your profile. Grow your total deposit relationship with First Tech by moving funds from any outside financial institution to any of your First Tech share accounts during the Promotional Period. New money must be deposited from any outside financial institution; transfers between First Tech accounts or its affiliates will not qualify. On 11.01.18, First Tech will determine how much your total deposit relationship grew during the promotional period by taking your total share balances on 07.31.18 and comparing them to your total share balances on 10.31.18. The increase in your total share balances during the promotional period will determine which Promotional Tier you are eligible to participate in. Your total share balances must increase by $25,000 or more during the Promotional Period. To receive a Promotional Tier Bonus, you must maintain the minimum required total deposit growth for the Promotional Tier you were eligible to participate in for at least four months from enrollment. If at the end of the four month period your total deposit growth drops below the Promotional Tier you were eligible to participate in, but still falls within one of the lower Promotional Tiers you'll be paid the bonus amount for the corresponding tier. Annual percentage yield is based on current available rates. Bonus Payment: We'll deposit the bonus to your Membership Savings account no later than 3.31.19. Bonus amount may be considered interest and may be reported on IRS form 1099-INT. Rates may be subject to change at any time. Terms and conditions may apply.
