BANZAI: FREE FINANCIAL EDUCATION

Posted on April 1, 2019 by Blog Admin

In school, we learn science, math and language arts, but how to balance a checkbook... that's another story. At ALLIANCE Credit Union, we believe financial education is necessary for youth in our community to make GREAT financial choices as they grow. So, we've partnered with Banzai, an online financial literacy program, to provide a FREE financial education program for kids AND adults.

For the last three years, ALLIANCE has been the sole provider of Banzai educational programs for teachers in the Lubbock area to use in their classrooms. Banzai provides workbooks and materials for teachers that meet the Texas Standards for financial education. Now, through Banzai Direct, ALLIANCE is excited to offer Banzai's financial education program to teachers. To visit alliancecutx.com/banzai to register and get started for FREE.

Banzai Benefits:

- It's FREE
- Courses for: Elementary aged children, junior high, high school & adults
- Real-world financial scenarios (like earning an income, paying bills, saving for the future, starting a business, etc.)
- Financial calculators
- An online library with short-read articles
- A 5 hour financial education course with certificate of completion
- And so much more!

This program is educational AND entertaining. Think you have finances down? Try your hand at the interactive coursework, you may be surprised how hard it is to ALWAYS make a decision financially. Have a youngster in your life that thinks money is really just the thing that gets you more pokemon cards? Start them on the path to financial wellness with A Banzai today!
